

Expressions of interest

As a self-regulatory body, the AASW is committed to ensuring its members adhere to the highest standards of ethics and professional conduct as set out in the AASW Code of Ethics and the Practice Standards. The AASW is currently seeking expressions of interest from suitably experienced senior social workers for a crucial role within its Ethics Complaints Management Process.

If you are a senior social worker with experience in complaints handling and the assessment and weighting of evidence, please click below to learn more about these important roles.

- Hearing / Appeal Panel Members

There will be several Hearing and Appeal panel member roles, these roles will go into a pool and will be appointed as required. Expenses will be paid for Hearing/Appeal Panel member positions.

Please submit the following details in support of your EOI to Feray Ergun, Team Leader, Complaints and Notifications, ethics.complaints@aasw.asn.au, outlining the following:

1. A short summary of why you are interested in the role and any relevant experience or expertise in the skill areas required.
2. Copy of your current CV
3. Names and positions of two referees in your professional sphere whom you would be happy to be contacted by the AASW regarding your capacity to perform in these roles.

Location of role: The role will predominantly be performed by electronic correspondence and teleconferencing.

Closing date for Expressions of Interest: Expressions of interest for the other listed positions are open until further notice.

If you have any queries, please contact Feray Ergun, Team Leader, Complaints and Notifications, ethics.complaint@aasw.asn.au.

The AASW looks forward to reviewing EOIs from interested parties who are committed to the integrity of the social work profession.